Free Coaching & Guidance for IAS & Allied services examination conducted by the Haj Committee of India.

With a view to enhance the achievement levels of the candidates from Muslim Community, the Haj Committee of India has been running coaching classes to prepare the Muslim youth for IAS & Allied Services Examinations conducted every year by UPSC.

The entire coaching and guidance is free of cost including Prelims, Mains and Interview. However, each student has to pay caution money of Rs. 10,000/- (Refundable) which will be forfeited against voluntary withdrawal from C&GC. All students will be provided with free accommodation on sharing basis. However, boarding charges are payable towards the caterers on prorata basis.

Detailed information in the form of prospectus 2016-17 & instructions to candidates is available on Haj Committee of India website www.hajcommittee.com. Last date for submission of applications online is 10th May, 2016. Entrance test for students of J&K State will be held at Srinagar on 28th May, 2016.
